2018 THANKSGIVING AND CHRISTMAS FOOD BASKETS

Our Society of St. Vincent de Paul Conference is preparing for delivery of food baskets for the less fortunate families in our community and restocking its pantry for the holidays. Your help is vitally needed with providing items to those being served. In addition, from November 1-28, the Society will have a Christmas tree in the Narthex with bells listing gifts they need for those they are serving.

The following items need to be dropped off at the parish office either during the week or after the Sunday morning Masses and placed in the parish kitchen freezer marked "SVDP": Whole chicken, whole turkey, chicken legs, chicken breasts, chicken thighs, ground turkey, ground beef, pork chops, hot dogs, bacon, butter, dinner rolls, pies, bread loaves (sliced).

Gift cards to Kroger, Walmart, Aldi (indicate amount on gift card & place card in the SVDP donation box). Use the attached envelope if you prefer to make a financial donation.
